

NURSERY BUYER'S MISSION WASHINGTON & HAWAII

AUGUST 8 – 14, 2018

The Western U.S. Agricultural Trade Association (WUSATA) is a trade association funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (www.wusata.org). Their mandate is to assist with developing international markets for U.S. growers and suppliers. WUSATA is running a buyers mission to Washington and Hawaii. You will have the opportunity to meet with growers and shippers in the Seattle, Washington area along with growers and shippers on Oahu and the Big Island in Hawaii. The following products are available between these regions:

Potted Flowering Plants	Specialty items	Landscape	Growing Operations
Anthuriums	Leis	Turf plants	Natives
Orchids	Native Hawaiian Plants	Hibiscus	Greenhouse
Tropicals	Foliage	Ferns	Field grown
Bromeliads	Hellebore's	Bushes and Hedges	Perennials / annuals
	Native Washington Plants	Croton	Edibles
Interiorscape Potted Plants	Bulbs	Ti Leaf (Cordyline)	Potted
Palms	Tulips	Tropicals	Winers
Dracaena	Daisy	Natives	Tissue Culture
Bonsai	Geranium	Shrubs	Liners
Schefflera		Orchid
Specialty Trees	Trees	Seeds	Urban Forest Nursery
Dogwood	Fruit	Grass Seed	Chrishaven
Maple tree	Shade	Seedlings	Biringer Nursery
Olive tree	Christmas Trees	Vegetable seeds
Arborvitae	Bamboo	Organic seeds
Bay Tree		Garden seeds
Ash Tree		Wildflower seeds
Blue Spruce		Zoysia grass seed
Conifers		Perennial flower seeds
Magnolia Tree

WUSATA will cover the costs of flights, lodging and ground transportation in the U.S. Participating buyers will be responsible for meals, incidentals, entertainment and any other personal expenses. The agenda is:

Wednesday, August 8	Arrive in Seattle, Washington
Thursday, August 9	One-on-one meetings / tours
Friday, August 10	One-on-one meetings / tours
Saturday, August 11	Travel to Honolulu, HI
Sunday, August 12	One-on-one meetings / tours - Evening fly to Hilo, HI
Monday, August 13	One-on-one meetings with growers
Tuesday, August 14	Return home

If you are interested in joining this event, please reply directly to WUSATA's Canadian Representative:
Kathy Boyce, 416-523-1470, kboyce@boycemarketing.com